Public procurement

Published: 4/1/2011 Modified: 28/1/2021

The Croatian National Bank is subject to the Public Procurement Act

All information relating to public procurement procedures are published in the Electronic Public Procurement Classifieds of the Republic of Croatia.

These include the conclusion and execution of framework agreements and public procurement contracts entered into in accordance with the appropriate public procurement procedure, i.e. the Registry of Public Procurement Contracts and the Registry of Framework Agreements.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Public Procurement Act, the Croatian National Bank publishes information regarding its public procurement plans, the list of economic operators with whom the Croatian National Bank is not allowed to conclude public procurement contracts and the procurement rules of the Croatian National Bank.

The Croatian National Bank participates in the joint procurement activities of the Eurosystem Procurement Coordination Office (EPCO).
