

HRVATSKA NARODNA BANKA

Currency reserves

Published: 31/1/2015

The Croatian National Bank has the exclusive right to issue kuna banknotes and kuna and lipa coins. The Croatian National Bank ensures the printing of banknotes, minting of coins, adequate reserves and regular supply of banknotes and coins in the territory of the Republic of Croatia.

The Croatian National Bank has the exclusive right to issue kuna banknotes and kuna and lipa coins and it is responsible for the printing of banknotes and minting of coins, including planning, contracting and the supervision of their production, as well as the management of total reserves.

The Croatian National Bank organises and ensures a regular supply of banknotes and coins in the territory of the Republic of Croatia and safeguards the quality of banknotes and coins in circulation.

© HRVATSKA NARODNA BANKA